This series, facilitated by Alika Hope, will equip and empower providers by introducing concrete strategies to help participants incorporate equity into all aspects of their childcare program. These sessions are intensive; providers will have the opportunity to build relationships and learn together within a small cohort.

Space is limited and active participation is expected.

Alika Hope is a skilled and experienced educator, published author and was previously a full-time faculty member at Borough of Manhattan Community College. She is the founder of The Ray of Hope Project, and her work has been featured in The New York Times, EWTN, The New Yorker, Time Out NY, Opera News, and Opera Now. Alika is co-host of "Perspective TV," which airs on Fox-61. She earned her Master of Arts Degree in Early Childhood Special Education from Teachers College, Columbia University, is a Registered Circle of Security Parenting Trainer (COS-P), and has received certification from the Autism Certification Center.

Dana Holahan, All Our Kin's Director of Professional Development, will co-facilitate in Spanish.
