

Building a Better World for our Children

Coming This Fall

All Our Kin is offering an exciting and innovative project for family childcare providers and our staff to work together to dream the reality we want for our children. We'll also develop and practice ways to build the communities and structures that move toward equity for our children, our communities and ourselves. The project includes:

- A full-day institute on Saturday, September 23, 2017 in Bridgeport, location to be confirmed
- Three (3) follow-up evening sessions at each of All Our Kin's offices in New Haven, Bridgeport and Stamford. Choose the location that works best for you - see below for dates
- High-quality materials for your programs
- Optional participation in small peer groups

Together, we will:

- Explore how our identities and sense of self influence our world view
- Learn about the history and current structures that are preventing us from achieving true equity
- Gain a deeper understanding of equity and how we can strengthen it in our work and personal lives
