

Business Series Train-the-Trainer

Do you support family child care (FCC) educators?

Do you work at an early childhood organization, state agency, or provider association?

Are you looking for business resources to help your educators?

Join All Our Kin's upcoming Train-the-Trainer (TTT)!

Grounded in a strength- and values-based approach, All Our Kin's highly interactive one-week virtual TTT (facilitated in English) prepares participants to lead AOK's Business Series, an engaging and accessible 10-week online or in-person course for FCC educators that covers everything from contracts and policies to financial management.

About the Business Series

The topics covered in AOK's Business Series (available in English, Spanish, & Chinese) are listed here and equate 34 hours of professional development for FCC educators.

AOK will provide detailed training guides and implementation support as trainers implement this Series in their communities.

Participants will leave this learning experience equipped to lead our FCC Business Series (virtually or in person).
