

Fundamentals of Family Child Care

Are you new to the field of family child care (FCC)?

Are you an early childhood advocate, a funder, a policymaker, or nonprofit leader?

Are you looking to learn more about FCC?

Join All Our Kin's upcoming Fundamentals training!

Grounded in All Our Kin's decades of working with FCC educators, this four-hour virtual training will provide an introduction to FCC. Our proven and innovative model for training, supporting, and sustaining FCC educators creates opportunities for providers and high-quality care options for families.

This training was developed in partnership with All Our Kin staff and FCC educators affiliated with All Our Kin's networks.

About Fundamentals

This training covers key topics such as:

- The strengths of FCC and its impact on children, families, and communities.
- The challenges faced by FCC educators and what a day in the life looks like.
- The national FCC landscape and the historical context of the profession.
- The equity issues and considerations for engaging with FCC educators and centering their voices.

Training Structure

- DATE: June 11th, 2025
- TIME: 1:00pm - 5:00pm ET
- LOCATION: Virtual on Zoom
- COST: Free to the public

Our facilitation includes interactive activities, in-depth content, and opportunities for relationship-building.

Hear from Our Participants

"The Fundamentals of Family Child Care...is an excellent training for anyone new to the FCC field. It provides a clear understanding of what FCC entails, the unique challenges providers face, and the valuable external resources and support systems available to assist FCC providers."

- Conny Zhu, Wu Yee Children's Services, CA