

Grounding Your Coaching in the 3Rs

Relational, Responsive, and Reflective Approaches

WHY LEARN FROM ALL OUR KIN?

All Our Kin is a nationally recognized nonprofit with 25 years of experience working side by side family child care educators.

Relational, responsive, and reflective approaches are part of the secret sauce to reaching transformative outcomes in family child care (FCC) programs.

"It was soul searching, transformative, and reflective. Everyone working with educators should attend this class!"

WHAT IS THE SERIES?

Grounded in All Our Kin's family child care coaching model, this three-part series will define relational, responsive, and reflective practice as it relates to educational coaching.

RELATIONAL (Session 1 - Sept 23rd, 2024)

- Experience a reflective journey about the power of relational approaches
- Reflect on creating safe learning environments for adult learners in coaching relationships

RESPONSIVE (Session 2 - Sept 25th, 2024)

- Explore the vital role of responsiveness in educator growth
- Share examples directly connected to our work with FCC educators

REFLECTIVE (Session 3 - Sept 27th, 2024)

- Delve into the critical elements of reflective practice
- Connect these practices to transformational FCC coaching outcomes

SERIES STRUCTURE

- DATE: September 23rd, 25th, & 27th, 2024
- TIME: 12 pm - 5 pm ET
- LOCATION: Virtual on Zoom (Computer required)
- COST: $575 per participant (Credit or debit are preferred. If you need another option, contact TA via email.)

WHO SHOULD PARTICIPATE?

Staff who work directly with FCC educators in coaching partnerships, whether they are new to the field of FCC or experienced practitioners.

Participants should plan to attend all three sessions as the content is cumulative and based on relationship-building over the series.
